Resolution 11-07 – Planning Consultant Services

Mayor Armstrong explained that Attorney James Denhardt had recommended selection of a certified planning consultant to act on the Town's behalf for the application for land use/zoning change of the Redington Long Pier property. The Gail Easley Company made an offer of $3,500. for consulting services; Gulf Coast Consulting, Inc. offered its services for $3,900. With both companies having similar qualifications, the Commission discussed choices, with a consensus that Gail Easley already has knowledge of the Town's land regulations since she prepared the EAR report for the Town. A motion to approve Gail Easley Company for planning services was made by Commissioner Branch, seconded by Vice Mayor Adams. Roll Call all yes.

Respectfully Submitted,

Patti Herr
Administrative Secretary
